

The third convention of the Virginia Association for the Deaf will be held in Richmond on the 14th and 15th of August. The object of the convention is to improve the condition of the deaf in Virginia.